

Felix Flores is an up and coming violinist from Mexico, currently residing in Toronto, Ontario. As a professional violinist, Felix attended the Vienna Conservatory in Austria and recently finished his degree requirements at Humber College, where he was mentored by Toronto's prominent violinists Drew Jurecka and Rebekah Wolkstein.

As a teacher, composer and arranger, Felix has experience performing in a wide variety of music genres including Classical, Jazz, Tango, Latin, and Contemporary music.

Additionally, Felix performed and toured extensively with Mexico's Youth National Symphony Orchestra and served as concertmaster for productions of "Evita" and "Beauty and the Beast" during the 2017 season of the Toronto Centre for the Arts. Under the supervision of Julliard graduate Christopher Collins Lee, Felix performed at the "Muzik Zentral" music festival in Innsbruck, Austria.

Felix also contributes to Dr. Barry Harry's "We Are One Jazz Project", a music program that provides music opportunities to at-risk students aged eight through thirteen, strengthening community bonds by using jazz music as a force for social change.
